

STUDENTS' REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL, 2007/08 SESSION UNIVERSITI TUN HUSSEIN ONN MALAYSIA (UTHM)

ADVERTORIAL

“STUDENTS’ AGENDA CATALYST”

Students' Representative Council of Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia (MPP UTHM) is the university's highest-ranked students' organisation. Members of the council function as 'assemblymen' representing students of the university. Furthermore, the council is also responsible in looking after the students' welfare within the given power and mandate. The members of the council include 18 students who were elected during the campus election and assisted by two students appointed as senators. The Students' Representative Council for the 2007/2008 session is headed by Muhammad Muslih Thani bin Nubli.

The MPP UTHM has several objectives. Among them are:

1. To ensure a comprehensive improvement in students' welfare and establish a conducive environment for the students through cooperation with all relevant parties.
2. To establish a good networking between students and the university's administration that would enable consistent and effective delivery of information between both parties.

3. To assist in producing individuals who are intellectually, spiritually physically and emotionally balanced and who would later contribute to the development of the religion and nation.
4. To cooperate with all relevant parties in realising the university's mission and vision.

The main vision of the MPP establishment is to produce balanced graduates who will become catalysts to the development of the university and country. Besides that, the council carries the mission to assist in the production of graduates who are professionals. Moreover, it also aims to establish a good relationship with all relevant parties so that all problems occurred could be given proper attention that would in turn helps in realising the university's mission and vision. In tandem with its motto, "MPP as Students' Agenda Catalyst", the establishment of the council itself serves as a medium for students to express their opinions.

Besides handling the welfare issues, the MPP also organises various programmes that would benefit all the students. Major annual programs that involve the council include the Convocation Fair, Orientation Week, character building courses at matriculation centres as well as community service programmes. For this session, the MPP has successfully organised Self-Aspiration Week that has helped the university in improving the quality of the students' personalities which is in line with the government's focus on the development of excellent and distinguished individuals.
