

Popular princess to get married at Istana Bukit Serene

JOHOR BARU: The engagement ceremony between Johor Princess Tunku Tun Aminah Maimunah Iskandariah Sultan Ibrahim and Dennis Muhammad Abdullah will be held on Aug 14 at Istana Bukit Serene in Johor Baru.

It will be then followed by the solemnisation ceremony.

The bersanding (sitting on the wedding dais) ceremony will also be held at the Throne Room of Istana Besar at 8pm on the same day.

Tunku Tun Aminah, 31, is the only princess of six children of Sultan of Johor Sultan Ibrahim Almarhum Sultan Iskandar and Permaisuri Johor Raja Zarith Sofiah Sultan Idris Shah.

Dennis, 28, is the marketing manager of Tampines Rovers Football Club in Singapore.

Dennis was a semi-professional footballer and served as the JDT Concept Store and Cafe manager before joining Tampines.

He was born in Lisse, a town near Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

Johor Royal Council president Datuk Abdul Rahim Ramli announced the wedding on May 17, and said Sultan Ibrahim and Raja Zarith had consented and given their blessings for the wedding.

Love match:

Tunku Tun Aminah will marry Dutchman Dennis at Istana Bukit Serene in Johor Baru on Aug 14